The contents of this website, and the posting and viewing of the information on this website, should not be construed as, and should not be relied upon, for legal or tax advice in any particular circumstance or fact situation. The information presented on this website may not reflect the most current legal developments. Further, this website may contain technical inaccuracies or typographical errors. No action should be taken in reliance on the information contained on this website and we disclaim all liability in respect to actions taken or not taken based on any or all of the contents of this site to the fullest extent permitted by law. An attorney should be contacted for advice on specific legal issues. Do not act, or refrain from acting, upon this information without seeking professional legal counsel.

No Attorney-Client Relationship Created

Nothing on this website is an offer to represent you, and nothing on this website is intended to create an attorney-client relationship. The transmission and receipt of information contained on this website, in whole or in part, or communication with YourWorkplaceLawyer via the Internet or e-mail through this website, does not constitute or create a lawyer-client relationship between us and any recipient. You should not send any confidential information in response to this webpage. Any communication via the Internet or e-mail will not create a lawyer-client relationship, and whatever you disclose to us will not be privileged or confidential unless we have agreed to act as your legal counsel and you have executed a written engagement agreement with YourWorkplaceLawyer.

No Guarantee of Results

Any attorney biographical information and practice area summaries are not intended to indicate or guarantee any of the same or similar results can be achieved in future matters. The outcome of a matter depends upon a number of factors. Any biographical information and practice area summaries are intended only to provide general information about experience.
